ABOUT THE LANGLEY SENIOR RESOURCES SOCIETY

For over 40 years, the Langley Senior Resources Society (LSRS) has provided social, recreational and educational programs and food, health and supportive services for adults 50 years of age and older in Langley. A MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

As we move into the fall season, I want to take a moment to reflect on where Langley Senior Resources Society has been this year, and where we're headed together.

Kate Ludlam,
Executive Director,
LSRS

Our Annual General Meeting is a cornerstone moment for our Society, and this year it matters more than ever. LSRS is in a season of real growth, and it's important that our members and community stay informed about how that growth is shaping the programs and services we offer. The AGM is your opportunity to hear directly from staff and the Board, ask questions, and see firsthand how your support translates into impact. Transparency and open communication are the foundation of trust, and we're committed to keeping that dialogue strong as our organization expands.

The numbers tell a powerful story. In 2023-24, we served 7,573 seniors. This past year, that number climbed to 11,793 – a jump of more than 55% over two years, including 21% growth in the last year alone. Every category of support grew alongside it: Better at Home assistance more than doubled to 1,080 seniors, navigation support rose to 2,095, housing assistance reached 994, and our number of programs doubled from 30 to 60. This growth reflects both increasing need in our community and the trust our seniors place in us. We're proud of it, and we take the responsibility that comes with it seriously.

As September 30th approaches, we pause to honour Truth and Reconciliation Day. This day holds particular significance for First Nations elders, many of whom lived through decades when Indigenous history was silenced or misrepresented. At its heart, reconciliation means listening to elders and honouring lived experience and memory. We have partnered with several Langley charities to organize a Truth and Reconciliation Day event, and we encourage our community to take time to learn, reflect, and support Indigenous voices.

Make a Will Week is just around the corner, and LSRS will be offering informative sessions to help members plan with confidence and peace of mind. Stay tuned for details on dates and how to register.

There's something special about autumn here in Langley - crisp mornings, golden leaves, and the comfort of gathering indoors again. It's a season that invites us to slow down, share a warm cup of tea with a friend, and appreciate the community we've built together.

Leave a Legacy

Giving Through Your Estate

Legacy Giving can change the lives of older adults not just now but in the future. At some point in our lives, we begin to think about the impact we will have on the world after we're gone. What will people remember about us? Have we left our community a better place than when we arrived? How can we ensure the things that are important to us to carry on?

Every day, donors just like you leave meaningful footprints on our world through legacy gifts. Thank you for considering the Langley Senior Resources Society in your estate planning. For more information on how to Leave a Legacy, contact our Executive Director Kate Ludlam at 604-530-3020 ext. 321, or by email: katel@lsrs.ca

Honour Someone Special

In Honour or Tribute giving:

An 'in honour' donation is a meaningful way to pay tribute to the life of a loved one and honour their legacy through a gift made in their name to the Langley Senior Resources Society. We can help supply donation forms for use at memorial services and Celebrations of Life and also provide the next-of-kin with a list of those who have made a gift.

The Hope Fund

Many seniors live on a fixed or limited income and may face difficulties when an unanticipated expense occurs. In some cases, a senior may need immediate short-term support to help them manage in the moment. We have witnessed many occasions where a vulnerable senior cannot afford to meet an urgent need which then puts their physical and mental well-being at risk.

Monthly Giving Donors

Consider Becoming a Monthly Donor

Monthly giving allows you to continue your support easily and make a difference year-round.

You only need to sign up once and can spread your donations out over the year, receiving one consolidated tax receipt in February. You are able to change or cancel your payments at any time!

Your monthly gifts also provide us with a consistent source of funding, allowing us to plan programs and initiatives with the comfort of knowing that we have a stable flow of donations. This helps us deliver the best programs and support we can to seniors in our community.

Other Sponsorship Opportunities

If you would like to sponsor a specific program or service or would like more information about any of these giving programs please contact our Community Fundraiser Bonnie McDonald. She can be reached by phone at 604-530-3020 ext. 323, or by email: bonniem@lsrs.ca.

Thank you to our volunteer gardeners!

Our 2026 volunteer gardeners with Executive Director Kate Ludlam and Facilities Manager Brandon Judd.

This month, we would like to take a moment to recognize and celebrate the amazing work of our volunteer gardeners.

From the moment you enter the parking lot, you are welcomed by the beautiful garden circle. Along the wall, planters filled with flowers and shrubs surround a thriving vegetable garden. Perhaps you have enjoyed a visit with friends in the peaceful Friendship Garden out back. Wherever you go, you will see the care, time, and dedication of our volunteer gardeners.

Their work is about so much more than planting and watering. Early each year, our gardeners come together to plan and design the gardens. Throughout the seasons, they plant, water, weed, prune, and nurture each garden with great care. Their passion for gardening and their dedication to our community shine through in everything they do.

We are especially grateful for the wonderful fresh, organic vegetables they grow and make available to our members at a very reasonable price. What a gift it is to be able to enjoy produce grown right here in our own gardens!

Our volunteer gardeners do so much to create beautiful, welcoming spaces where everyone can relax, connect, and enjoy the outdoors. Their efforts bring colour, beauty, friendship, and a wonderful sense of community to our centre.

To all of our volunteer gardeners, thank you! We are so very grateful for your time, your hard work, and the love you put into our gardens. You truly help make LSRS a beautiful and welcoming place for everyone to enjoy.

Goodbye, worry. Hello, peace of mind.

Our monthly legal clinics at LSRS give you direct access to a lawyer for personalized, practical advice.

Bring your questions—big or small—and any relevant documents (copies or originals) or send them ahead of time so we can make the most of your 30 minutes together.

MCGREGOR SAYS

We are deeply saddened to learn of the loss of Jim McGregor on August 20th.

Jim gave our centre so much of his time and we are grateful for that. Whenever we needed an emcee, a fireside story teller, or a Monday Morning Talk show speaker Jim would step up. We were very happy when he agreed to contribute a monthly column for our In the Loop newsletter. His folksy writing, gentle humour, and deep knowledge of our local community made the column a 'must read'.

Jim came in to thank us for giving him a full page and photo of his mother Peggy's recipe in the August Loop. He received an overwhelming amount of feedback. Thank you to everyone who reached out to him to say they enjoyed it.

We at LSRS extend our condolences to Jim's family and friends at this time. He will be greatly missed.

Back to School - it must be September

A few years back I was driving from Quesnel to Prince George on the way to my sister's retirement. She was completing thirty-five years as an elementary school teacher and I was thinking of something to say at her banquet that would show my appreciation for a job well done.

The car radio crackled off and on, picking up CBC radio here and there when suddenly it came in very clear and an announcer began a story about a man who was home with the flu, looking after his five year old son. The boy was glad to have dad home and was driving him crazy.

The father picked up a children's place mat from a restaurant on which the boy had colored a map of the world. He cut out the countries like a jig saw puzzle, set some scotch tape and the place mat pieces on the table and told the boy to put the puzzle together; this would surely give dad a welcome break.

In about two minutes the boy came to dad, the puzzle was done and done perfectly.

"You did a great job," praised dad. "It was easy Daddy; there was a picture of a boy and girl on the other side. I just made sure the kids were put together right, and the world turned out OK!"

I let those words settle. Pretty nice words to share with someone who had made a life putting kids together right. I had my words for the banquet and some thoughts to think about.

For the next few months, our kids and Grandkids will be spending more waking time with their teachers than parents. They will be taught how to listen, how to watch, how to learn and they will be watching and listening to everything around them. Not just at school, but conversations at home, TV, video games, and movies. It's all part of their education, and we are all teachers.

It doesn't really matter if they are starting grade one, grade 12 or first year university, let's help the teachers put these kids together right and maybe, just maybe, the world will turn out OK.

Lending Library

This library is maintained for the enjoyment of our many members. In consideration for ALL of our members who want to enjoy these books, we ask each member to borrow only a few books at a time and return these books within 2 weeks before selecting more to enjoy from our library. Your consideration for the many other book-loving seniors is appreciated.

We also accept donations of newer books in good condition of the 2000 years. Please leave them in the basket.

3 ways to find purpose as a retiree

Retirement means greater freedom, but it can also take effort to keep from settling too much or letting your world shrink. Finding meaning at every stage of life is an important part of living it to the fullest. Here are three ways you can enjoy a purposeful retirement:

Try something new. Now is the perfect time to try something new, regardless of your age or experience. Pick up a paintbrush, start a container garden on a balcony or patio, or learn basic photography with a smartphone. The goal isn't to become an expert. New hobbies can provide a sense of accomplishment and stimulate the mind. There's satisfaction in seeing progress over time and proving to yourself that it's never too late to grow.

Find community. Without the structure of a routine and built-in socialization, loneliness can be a real concern for seniors. One way to make community a key part of your retired life is to take part in one.

The main goal is to get out and engage with the people and community around you.

Make a difference. For some of us, there's real meaning and value in using our skills. If you feel like you have a lot to give, volunteering can be a great way to stay active. It can also help you can widen your social circle—volunteering has a way of building connections between generations—while making a real difference. There are plenty of volunteer opportunities for people with different availabilities, aptitudes and mobility; volunteer groups need administrative skills, greeters and people to make phone calls, too.

The key is to stay curious, connected and engaged in the people and activities that bring you joy.

BEYOND THE BROCHURE

How To Pick A Seniors Community That Fits You

Researching senior living in Langley? Brochures and websites often look the same—bright dining rooms, smiling faces, and lush gardens. To find the right fit for you, use these questions as part of your research:

Cost: What is actually included in the monthly rate?

Ask for total transparency. Are all meals, utilities, Wi-Fi, and cable included, or are they separate bills? Check for extra fees, such as parking or scooter storage.

2. Cuisine: What is the dining experience really like?

Are meal times flexible, or are you locked into set schedules and assigned seating? Ask if you can host a family for dinner in a private dining space, or have hot meals delivered to your suite if you are under the weather.

3. Contents: What can I bring with me when I move in?

Ask about what is and isn't acceptable for furniture and decor. If you have a car, check on parking availability. And if you're bringing a pet, clarify pet policies, including size limits and where pets are allowed.

4. Care: What happens if my health needs change?

Inquire about guidelines and support for getting more personal or health care. If moving with a partner, confirm if the community offers a continuum of care so couples can stay together even if daily health needs diverge.

5. Contracts: What does the fine print say?

Avoid long-term commitments. Look for flexible month-to-month rental agreements with clear notice periods and predictable standards for annual rate adjustments.

At Magnolia Gardens and Sunridge Gardens in Langley, we believe transparency, community, and comfort come first. Whether you are looking for vibrant social activities, flexible dining, or peace of mind for the future, our retirement communities are designed around your lifestyle.
